P3 Solutions, a Woman-Owned Small Business:

Your one-stop resource for proposal expertise

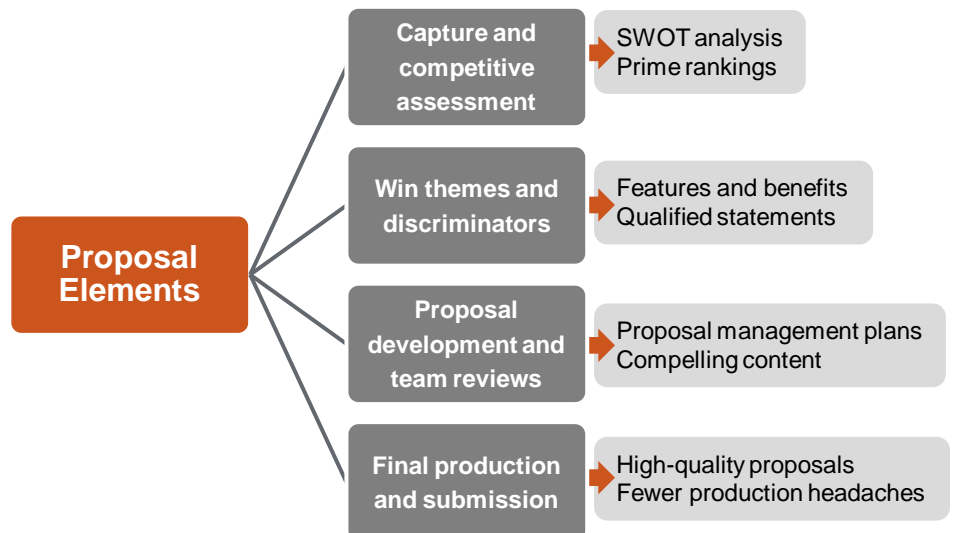

P3's pool of nearly 60 experienced proposal specialists each have an average of 20 years' experience. Collectively, we have helped our clients procure more than $100B in Federal Government contracts. Nearly 100% of our customers are "clients for life." From pre-RFP release to final production, the P3 team helps you deliver compliant, compelling, and winning proposals.

Custom solutions

Every proposal effort is unique. P3 is a flexible and agile partner able to support our customers at every point in the proposal process. Using our proven best practices, we develop client-specific, repeatable proposal processes—and train in-house proposal staff to use them efficiently on the next effort.

Experience

We have supported large, process-focused proposals. We have worked with last-minute bid decisions and 48-hour-turnarounds. Our customers include large government contractors, medium-sized companies reaching for the "next level," and start-ups trying to gain a foothold in the Federal space. Whatever the proposal challenge, P3's cross-trained staff is ready.
